"This book is a must-read for all university leaders and senior managers to enable them to get a better insight into the numerous challenges facing academia in the new normal, where it is not only about academic excellence but also about the human dimension through the enhanced use of technology."

—Dhanjay Jhurry

University of Mauritius, Mauritius

"This thought-provoking book captures contemporary changes to higher education at the micro and macro level post-2020."

—Dawn Joseph

Deakin University, Australia

"This book shows a more intensive and multi-faceted response by the higher education community to the pandemic that one might have expected."

—Ulrich Telchler

University of Kassel, Germany

"This volume is a welcome addition to the literature on international Higher Education produced during the COVID-19 era. With a sensitively chosen array of topics, it shows new thinking around internationalisation, which is encouraging for all, and is exactly what is needed."

—Amanda C. Murphy

Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore, Italy

"With the COVID-19 pandemic seeing no end in sight and its effects on international higher education for students around the world yet unknown, the importance of this timely book cannot be overstated."

—Bernhard Strelt Wieser

George Washington University, USA

"This is a valuable addition to higher education for understanding the complexities that COVID-19 introduced into the academic landscape."

—Jane E. Gatewood

University of Rochester, USA

"This timely book is much needed for practitioners, scholars, and policy makers who are grappling with the challenges created by the pandemic."
